Our Mission

... is to educate, encourage, and equip women for the most important job in all the world—parenting. Through practical, Biblically-based teaching on parenting and through supportive interaction in small groups led by experienced mothers, called “Titus 2” women after the Titus 2:4 model in the New Testament, we wish to foster growth not only in our parenting skills but in our wholeness as women—intellectually, relationally, and spiritually.

Who We Are

We are women of diverse backgrounds from many different churches and communities all over the area who have children of all ages. Though at various stages of parenting, we share a common desire to grow as women and as mothers.

The When, Where, Who, and How

When: Thursday mornings, 9:30–11:30
beginning September 14, 2017

Where: In the Fellowship Hall at Christ Church,
111 Main Street, Anytown

Who: Moms and kids! Pre-schoolers participate in a special program of their own, guided by a dedicated team of childcare workers.

How: Complete the attached form and mail in as directed on the form. Or, you may register online at:

A Typical MOM TO MOM Morning

First we gather for a large-group lecture on a topic pertinent to our lives as moms. The “core curriculum” DVD teaching is done by Linda Anderson, founder of Mom to Mom. Mother of three and grandmother of eight, Linda has a background as an educator and reading specialist, and has been teaching parenting groups and Bible studies for more than 20 years. She integrates much of her own life and reading into her Biblically-based teaching.

To supplement the core video lectures, we regularly welcome to Mom to Mom guest speakers—professionals, members of our community, and church staff personnel—who address us on topics pertinent to parenting and family life.

The morning’s lecture is followed by a coffee break, after which we gather in small groups, each led by an experienced mother, to discuss the topic of the morning and apply it to our own families. Here we have a safe place to share the joys and frustrations of motherhood and to explore the promises and purposes God gives to us as parents.

The 2017–2018 Curriculum

This year’s curriculum, Growing Together: Growing a Child = Growing a Mom, is designed for both new and returning moms. It will help us all come to know ourselves, our husbands, and our children better so that while we are growing our children, God can be growing us. The year is organized around four themes:

- Personal Growth: Parents are People, Too
- Partnering Growth: Marriage is the Heartbeat of the Home—Keep It Pumping!
- Parenting Growth: As We Grow Them, He Grows Us
- Parenting Power: Keep Connected to the Source

We hope you’ll join us!

What moms are saying about MOM TO MOM . . .

“I’ve been looking for balance in my life. At MOM TO MOM I get refocused, recentered, and balanced. I can go out of here and do it another week!”

“I tell my friends they will be encouraged, lifted, renewed, and reminded of the Big Picture.

“I love being with moms with kids of all ages. I love coming here every week. I love the person I am when I leave!”

“I can not say enough about the childcare! It was incredible. I felt so safe leaving my child there each week.”

“This program is a gift every week. Linda’s lessons keep me grounded in the knowledge that God is in control and loves me and my family. It reminds me every week of God’s power and faithfulness.”

“MOM TO MOM charges my parenting ‘batteries,’ helps me to feel ‘normal,’ and encourages me that my job as a mom is important.”

“I’ve learned to see my husband and kids through new eyes.”

“The word that comes to mind is transformation. I’m slowly becoming the Christian I’m supposed to be—it’s changing my relationships.”

“My ‘take-away’ is: ‘Don’t miss who your husband is because you see only who he isn’t!’”

“It has reminded me to attend to my own spiritual growth so I’m equipped to teach my son.”

“Above all I have learned, through the practical ways that MOM TO MOM ‘takes apart’ the pieces of Biblical parenting, is that I can trust God in and with all things—even with raising my kids!”

“MOM TO MOM has built my confidence as a mother and a wife, and given me a peace about not being perfect.”
